Together in Faith and Advocacy: A Trustee Update for December

Looking Ahead to Advent and the New Year with Gratitude

As we enter December, the season of Advent invites us to reflect on the important work the Edmonton Catholic Schools' Board of Trustees has done and the opportunities ahead. We remain dedicated to advocating for policies and initiatives that promote student success and well-being, always working to create an inclusive, supportive, and faith-filled learning community.

A vital part of our work involves collaborating with School Councils. Recently, the Board had the privilege of gathering with School Council and Society Chairs to discuss the important work they do in our schools. The evening was filled with dialogue, learning, and a shared commitment to helping our schools thrive. These partnerships strengthen our community and provide lasting benefits to our students.

Another key advocacy focus is amplifying student voices. Our first Student Voice meeting of the year was a valuable opportunity for Board members to hear directly from students across our high schools, making student perspectives central to our decision-making. By prioritizing these conversations, we keep our governance grounded in the lived experiences of our students.

This fall, Trustees have been actively engaging with provincial partners to ensure our schools have the resources and support they need. We're pleased to see the Government of Alberta's continued commitment to the School Construction Accelerator program, which will help us meet the needs of our growing student population. With over 50,000 students across 94 schools, Edmonton Catholic Schools continues to nurture a rich, faith-filled environment where learning and spiritual growth flourish together. We remain dedicated to championing the priorities of our division, from improved infrastructure to enhanced learning supports, and we will continue these efforts into the New Year.

The Advent season in our schools provides a special time for students and staff to engage in prayer, reflection, and acts of kindness. It is inspiring to witness our students coming together to spread joy and embody the values of hope, love, and peace. We are also deeply appreciative of the ways our staff nurtures the spirit of Advent, creating a warm and faith-filled environment for all.

This wouldn't be possible without the dedication of our teachers, support staff, and administrators, whose hard work and commitment ensure our students receive a high-quality, faith-based education every day. We are grateful for all they do to make our schools places of learning and growth.

The Board of Trustees wishes you all a blessed Advent and a joyful Christmas season. Should you have any questions, please contact us at boardoffice@ecsd.net. Paid by Edmonton Catholic School Division

ELLA – Wendy Davis

The love of learning recognizes no age barriers. Just ask Wendy Davis, who turns 96 this year.

She comes out each spring to take ELLA's non-credit classes at the University of Alberta. ELLA also offers online courses in winter.

"I have many senior friends who invariably gripe about the vagaries of aging. I love ELLA as our discussions are inspired by the content of our classes – be it bugs or glaciers or politics - which I find stimulating and invigorating," says Wendy.

A class on writing Wendy took early in her ELLA experience inspired her to write a memoir about her childhood in India. Her book, Dal and Rice, was eventually published by McGill-Queens University Press.

Born in London, England, Wendy spent part of her childhood and teen years in India, before returning to the UK and training as an occupational therapist. In 1974 she moved to Edmonton for a job as a teaching assistant in rehab medicine at U of A.

She discovered ELLA when she retired at 65. The encouragement of her writing class colleagues and instructor was instrumental in her becoming a published creative writer at age 80, she says.

"ELLA is an exceptional organization – I know of nothing like it."

Registration for the Online Winter Session at ELLA begins December 5, with classes starting Jan. 13. For more information, visit my-ella.com.
